SUNOCO LOGISTICS PARTNERS L.P. REPORTS MINIMAL DAMAGE FROM HURRICANE IKE

PHILADELPHIA, September 16, 2008 - Sunoco Logistics Partners L.P. (NYSE: SXL), announced today that a preliminary assessment indicates that its assets experienced only minor damage during Hurricane Ike. Most of the Company's facilities maintained operations during the hurricane. In anticipation of the storm, the Company shut down its Jefferson County, Texas facilities, including the Nederland Marine Crude Oil Terminal. The Nederland Terminal experienced limited flooding. The Nederland Terminal and the Sour Lake facilities experienced loss of commercial power. Water is receding around the Nederland dock facilities and substantial progress is being made toward restoration of commercial power. Upon resolution of these matters, the reopening of the Sabine-Neches waterway and the ability of our customers to deliver or receive, the Company expects to resume operations at both facilities.
